

M.F. Husain

M.F. Husain (Maqbool Fida Husain, 17 September 1915 – 9 June 2011) was an Indian artist known for executing bold, vibrantly coloured narrative paintings in a modified Cubist style. He was one of the most celebrated and internationally recognised Indian artists of the 20th century. He was one of the founding members of Bombay Progressive Artists' Group.

M.F. Husain Artworks

Husain's artwork was characterised by a fusion of traditional Indian themes with modernist techniques. His paintings often included figures from Hindu mythology and Indian history, and he was known for his depictions of goddesses like Durga and Saraswati.

Husain's art also features elements from his experiences and travels, including depictions of Islamic and Hindu themes.

Husain Paintings

Husain paintings, executed in a modified Cubist style, can be caustic and funny as well as serious and sombre. His themes—sometimes treated in series—include topics as diverse as Gandhi, Mother Teresa, The Ramayana, The Mahabharata, The British Raj, and motifs of Indian urban and rural life.
